

European Governance and the Geopolitics of Energy

The Ifri Energy Program

Lessons from Bali: Implications for the EU-ETS

January 10th - 2008

Ifri, 27 rue de la Procession, 75015 Paris

(metro stations: Pasteur I. 6,12 ; Volontaires I. 12)

Please, note that this is a preliminary agenda. Participants are currently being contacted. We will keep you informed of all future developments.

2:00- 4:00 pm: Session I – The Bali Conference: Which New Perspectives for Global Climate Change Mitigation?

- The Bali Conference : Results and Impression
- Implications of the Bali Conference for Long-term Greenhouse Gas Emissions
- The New Role of the UNFCCC: Are there Alternatives to the Kyoto Flexibility Mechanisms?
- From Onlooker to Key Player: New Ideas and Initiatives from the United States

4:00 - 4:30 pm : Coffee Break

4:30- 6:30 pm: Session II – Implications of the Bali conference for the EU ETS

- Changing Framework Conditions for the EU ETS
- The Outlook for the CDM Market and Convergence with EU ETS
- EU ETS, European Objectives for 2020 and Long-term stabilization of concentrations: The Question of Policy Coherence

European Governance and the Geopolitics of Energy

List of discussants

Richard BARON, International Energy Agency
Didier BEUTIER, Areva confirmed
Mathieu BONNET, Suez-Tractebel
Jean-Paul BOUTTES, EdF confirmed
Nicole DELLERO, Areva confirmed
Henry DERWENT, Defra, UK
Barbara BUCHNER, International Energy Agency confirmed
Carlo CARRARO, University of Venice confirmed
Jan CORFEE-MORLOT, OECD confirmed
Jos DELBEKE, EU Commission
Christian EGENHOFFER, Center for European Policy Studies
Emmanuel FAGES, Société Générale/Orbeo confirmed
Roger GUESNERIE, Collège de France confirmed
Jean-Charles HOURCADE, CIRED confirmed
Jan Horst KEPPLER, University of Paris-Dauphine confirmed
Brice LALONDE, France Special Ambassador for Climate Change confirmed
Jacques LESOURNE, Ifri Energy Program confirmed
Mark LEWIS, Deutsch Bank confirmed
Jacques MISTRAL, Ifri confirmed
Helen MOUNTFORD, OECD confirmed
Karsten NEUHOFF, University of Cambridge
Hélène PÉLOSSE, Cabinet of the Minister of Ecology
Benoît LEGUET, Caisse des Dépôts et Consignations confirmed
Jean-Pol PONCELET, AREVA confirmed
Steve RAYNER, Oxford Saïd Business School confirmed
Guido SACCONI, European Parliament
Kathia SIMEONOVA, UNFCCC confirmed
Yves SMEERS, Tractebel confirmed
Nicholas STERN, London School of Economics
Michel COLOMBIER, IDDRI confirmed