

eur-IFRI

*« Un regard européen sur l'UE »
« A European viewpoint on the EU »*

eur-IFRI is honoured to invite you on Tuesday, March 28th from 1pm to 2.30pm

to its « Eur-Ifri Tuesday » lunch debate on the topic:

« Any room for soft EU between hegemonic USA and rising China? »

The debate will be introduced by

Robert COOPER

Director General, External Economic Relations, Common Foreign and Security Policy, Council of the European Union

and will be followed by a discussion according to the Chatham House rule (no official line, no attribution)

For more information regarding Eur-Ifri, Brussels branch of IFRI: www.ifri.org

Practical information:

- Eur-Ifri address: 22-28 Av. d'Auderghem, 5th floor – B-1040 Brussels (right off the rond-point Schuman, opposite the Shell gas station).
- Given the size of our conference room, the number of participants will be limited to 30 people, according to the rule “First come, first served”
- Drinks and Sandwiches will be available (8 €)
- Contact person: Chloé Debay - cdc.eurifri@ifri.org - +32-2-238.51.12

REGISTRATION FORM*

« Any room for soft EU between hegemonic USA and rising China? »

(To send by Email : cdc.eurifri@ifri.org)

Last Name : First Name :

Organization :

Position :

Email : Tél :

I will attend the “Eur-Ifri Tuesday” on March 28th Yes No

I will take the “drinks and sandwiches” (8 €) Yes No

* We'll send you a confirmation of your registration one or two days before the conference.