

Pavel Kimovich BAEV
Research Professor, Peace Research Institute, Oslo (PRIO)

- Education: 1979 Moscow State University (MA Economic and Political Geography)
1988 USA & Canada Institute, USSR Academy of Sciences, Moscow
(PhD in International Relations)
- Employment: 1979-1988 Research Institute, USSR Ministry of Defense
1988-1997 Institute of Europe, Soviet/Russian Academy of Sciences, Moscow
(1992-1997 on sabbatical leave).
Since October 1992 – with PRIO, since August 2005 - professor
1995-2001 Editor, Security Dialogue
1999-2005 Member of the PRIO Board
1997-2003 Head of PRIO Foreign and Security Policy program
2002-2005 Head of a working group, Center for the Study of Civil War
- Fellowships: February-April 1991,
Forschungsinstitut, Konrad Adenauer Stiftung, Bonn.
December 1991-January 1992,
Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik, Ebenhausen.
August 1994 - July 1996, NATO Democratic Institutions Fellowship.
- Affiliations: Senior Non-Resident Fellow, Brookings Institution, Washington DC.
Member of the Program on New Approaches to Research and Security in Eurasia (PONARS Eurasia), based at the George Washington University,
Washington, DC (<http://www.ponarseurasia.org/home.html>).
Commentator for the Eurasia Daily Monitor, Jamestown Foundation,
Washington, DC (<http://www.jamestown.org/programs/edm/>).
Member of the Advisory Board,
PIR Center, Moscow (<http://www.pircenter.org/index.php?id=1174>)
Associate Research Fellow, Russia/NIS Center, Ifri
- Expertise: Russian defense posture and military reform;
Conflict management in the Caucasus and the Caspian Sea area;
Russia's place in the European security system, Russia-NATO relations;
Russia's energy policy and Russia-EU dialogue;
Energy geopolitics and Russia's interests in the Caspian area;
Russian policy in the Arctic.